Cooee Café is an 100% Aboriginal owned Café on the Mornington Peninsula, proudly owned by Yamatji/Noongar woman- Sharon Brindley. Excited to share a range of Indigenous flavours with her customers, whether that be in-store, through private or corporate group catering, Sharon is always providing an eclectic food experience.

Here at Cooee, we are more than accommodating and willing to cater your every need! From sandwiches & sweets, to grazing platters and everything in between, we promise your guests will not go hungry.

Sharon is a strong believer in bringing people together through food, that is why we make it our mission to be the best for every event. We put love and pride into each aspect. Making the vast majority by hand to ensure freshness and consistency each time, we aim to provide the best quality products to be enjoyed by all.

All catered food is served in cardboard boxes with limited plastic being used, should a more personalised method be required please let us know and we can tailor this to you and your event.
