BAR

LIKE ANY GREAT NIGHT OUT, THERE'S ALWAYS A STORY TO TELL...

Saturday, 31st January 1880; the press is churning, the crew are scurrying, and the first edition of the Bulletin Newspaper is just minutes away from leaving the original production building at 10 Bulletin Place; exactly where you're sitting right now.

The Press Room is full of memories; uneven floorboards from the weight of the print press, or the cut-out near our Waiters Station where the press had to be lifted into place. A warm, comfortable and inviting space where you can't help but take in the history and excitement of the Bulletin Newspaper and 10 Bulletin Place.

~ THE PRESS ROOM ~

LIKE ANY GREAT NIGHT OUT, THERE'S ALWAYS A STORY TO TELL...

Saturday, 31st January 1880; the press is churning, the crew are scurrying, and the first edition of the Bulletin Newspaper is just minutes away from leaving the original production building at 10 Bulletin Place; exactly where you're sitting right now.

Fast forward to modern day and the distinctive and rhythmic whooshing, thumping and clicking of the press has been replaced with a hum of activity as you settle in to enjoy the tasty and enticing world of Bar 1880.

The Headline Bar at Bar 1880 is perfectly positioned to marvel in the timeless aesthetic of the Bulletin Place laneway. Immerse yourself in the historic Circular Quay surroundings, let your mind wander, step back in time and picture delivery trucks and paper boys collecting their loads for the day. When your curiosity gets the better of you, why not step through the original threshold and take the stairs to Level One where you'll find the Press Room.

The Press Room is full of memories; uneven floorboards from the weight of the print press, or the cut-out near our Waiters Station where the press had to be lifted into place. A warm, comfortable and inviting space where you can't help but take in the history and excitement of the Bulletin Newspaper and 10 Bulletin Place.
